Collect (Opening Prayer)

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9, 11-13

At the mountain of God, Horeb,
Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter.

Then the LORD said to him,

“Go outside and stand on the mountain
before the LORD;
the LORD will be passing by.”

A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains

and crushing rocks before the LORD—
but the LORD was not in the wind.

After the wind there was an earthquake—
but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

After the earthquake there was fire—
but the LORD was not in the fire.

After the fire there was a tiny whispering
sound.

When he heard this,

Elijah hid his face in his cloak
and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 85:9-14

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

*I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD — for he proclaims peace.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land. R.*

*Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven. R.*

*The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.
Justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps. R.*

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5

Brothers and sisters:

I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie;
my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness
that I have great sorrow and constant anguish
in my heart.
For I could wish that I myself were accursed
and cut off from Christ
for the sake of my own people,
my kindred according to the flesh.
They are Israelites;
theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants,
the giving of the law, the worship, and the
promises;
theirs the patriarchs, and from them,
according to the flesh, is the Christ,
who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Alleluia and Verse: Psalm 130:5

*I wait for the Lord;
my soul waits for his word.*

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat

and precede him to the other side,
while he dismissed the crowds.
After doing so, he went up on the mountain
by himself to pray.

When it was evening he was there alone.
Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles
offshore,
was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it.

During the fourth watch of the night,
he came toward them walking on the sea.
When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified.
“It is a ghost,” they said, and they cried out in fear.

At once Jesus spoke to them, “Take courage,
it is I; do not be afraid.”

Peter said to him in reply, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.”

He said, “Come.”

Peter got out of the boat and began to walk
on the water toward Jesus.
But when he saw how strong the wind was he
became frightened;
and, beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord,
save me!”

Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter,

and said to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”

After they got into the boat, the wind died
down.

Those who were in the boat did him homage,
saying,

“Truly, you are the Son of God.”

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, o prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
